FOR JANUARY 1943

TEMPLARY—The days of prosperity, rather than those of adversity, are the ones most to be feared. Opposition cements and strengthens the Order, and leads to watchfulness, while commendation is apt to engender carelessness and indifference to the weak points in the citadel in which we are entrenched. Vigilance, eternal vigilance is no more the price of liberty than it is of prosperity and permanence to the Order of Templars.

REFRESHMENTS

SPECIAL DATE

There will be a Templar Testimonial Dinner given on Saturday evening, May 1, 1943, at the Statler Hotel, Boston, Mass., to pay tribute to our own Most Eminent Grand Master of Knights Templar of the United States of America, Rt. Em. Sir Harry Gilmore Pollard, Past Commander of Pilgrim Commandery No. 9. All Sir Knights interested see the Commander.

TEMPLARY

The best defense of Christianity in this day and country which we can, as a fraternity, make, and that which is especially enjoined, is a practical exemplification, in daily walk and conversation, of its precepts and its virtues. Our Order is founded on the practice of the christian virtues, as well as the christian religion. We are taught in our asylum to so let our light shine, that others seeing our good deed may glorify their Father in heaven.

By order of the Grand Commander, each Commandery in the state must appoint a membership committee, whose duties it will be to secure new members. Your Commander has appointed the following on this committee: Sirs Arthur S. Lord, David J. Cormack, Em. Sirs Prescott W. Eaton, Harold K. Boody, Albert M. Genn, and Wm. H. Carter. Please notify this committee of companions who might be interviewed.

Knight of Malta—

KENNETH Le ROY KIMBALL

The work will be done by Officers of Haverhill Commandery. Let's have a large attendance to greet our visitors.

TESTIMONIAL DINNER

To Most Eminent Grand Master, Harry G. Pollard, at Hotel Statler, Boston, Saturday evening, May 8, 1943. Please make arrangements with the Eminent Commander.

TEMPLARY—Our Order is a most Holy one; it breathes of a deeper religion than any Masonic degree; and it is unfitting without preparation of any kind, without time for the candidate to even reflect, much less to study and research, to make haste to dub him a Knight Templar before he has attempted to digest the lessons taught him as a Master Mason.

THE ILLUSTRIOUS ORDER OF THE RED CROSS

A dramatization of the Illustrious Order of the Red Cross will be produced in full form on the stage in Gothic Hall, Masonic Temple, Boston, Mass., Tuesday evening, October 26, 1943, at 8 P. M.

The work will be performed by a group of Sir Knights who have specialized in the work of this Order. It will give all Knights Templars an opportunity to witness a production that is very seldom worked in this particular form.

The Grand Commander requests that all entitled Candidates be present on this occasion. He is desirous of a class of 100.

TEMPLARY—Masonic Templarism is co-operation, and with the Church has the common watchword of "Peace on earth, good will to men." In their combined moral and religious influence, they will move forward until all nations are brought to a knowledge of the True God.
